Overview

What is a Private Coaching Plan?

Private Coaching Plans are a series of lesson package options designed to help students improve their game through private instruction with their chosen coach. Plans are available one a one off or subscription basis with built in goal setting, coaching time and added value group practice facility attendance. The plans prescribed to each student will be based on the goals agreed. Plans include...

Private Basis

Coaching Plans are delivered on a one to one basis with clients and you will be able to tailor the coaching time of each lesson to the individuals needs.

Variable Coaching Time

Each of the plans available include a range of coaching time. The coach and student can utilise the time across any area of the game to suit the agreed goals and can be used flexibly from one lesson to the next.

Range of Expiries

Coaching Plans are delivered across a number of time periods, with the option chosen dependant on the goal agreed by the coach and student.

Added Value

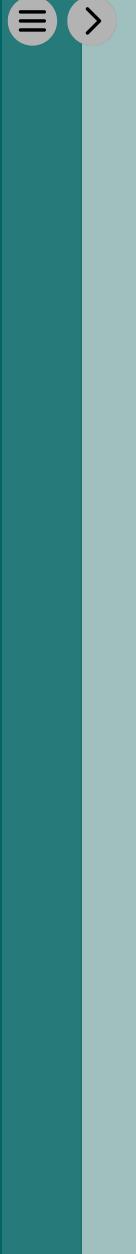

All Coaching Plans are recommended to include access to weekly practice clubs free of charge. This will help to drive practice time and game development alongside coaching plan lessons.

Flexible Payment Options

Customers can purchase Coaching Plans under a one off payment upfront, or using a subscription based method offering flexibility to suit the needs and lifestyle of each customer. You also have the flexibility to allow students to split an upfront coaching plan over a number of months.

Purpose of a Private Coaching Plan

Private Coaching Plans provide a framework for coaches to deliver an exceptional coaching experience to their students. With these programs aligned to the students goals they will engage and inspire students to continue to learn and improve their golf at the club for the long term. Some of main purposes of this program includes...

Long Term Private Coaching Option

• Private Coaching Plans are designed provide your students with a one to one coaching option which will retain them into your coaching activity at the club for the long term.

Strong Relationship

• Coaching Plans will allow you to develop a strong social connection with your clients. You will build trust that will foster long term retention and brand loyalty.

Manage their Journey

• Through the close relationship with your students on Coaching Plans you will be able to closely monitor and direct their coaching journey providing them with all of the opportunities they need to improve and be engaged at your club and coaching business.

Great Coaching Experience

plan will allow you to provide a great positively on you and the club in which you are based.

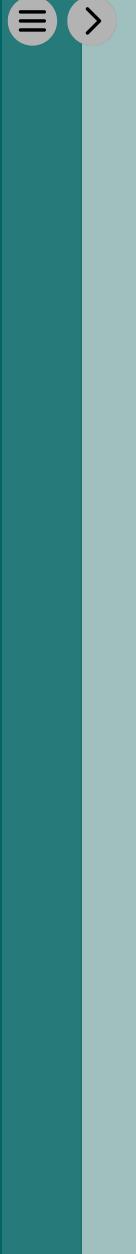

Game Development

• Ultimately through a coaching plan you will be able to develop the students game. The structure of the programs will allow you the time to benchmark and measure the students progress.

• The framework provided within a coaching experience to each student which will reflect

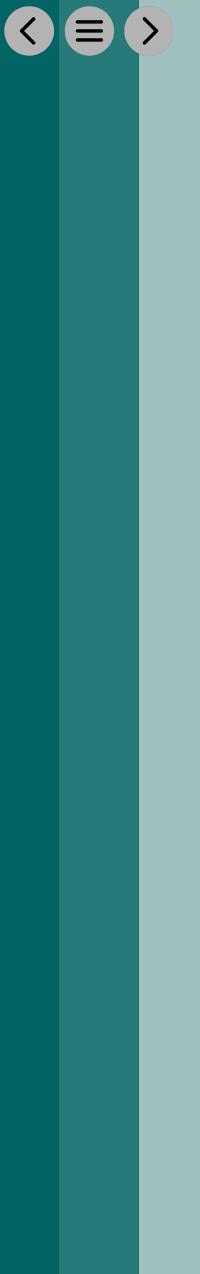

Journey into a Private Coaching Plan

The programs at Phase 2 offer a clear route into Private Programming. Specifically at Phase 2, the Assessment program is designed as an opportunity for new students looking to embark on a goal based journey with the coach over a series of lessons to receive further information before being converted into the right program.

Those students attending Adult Group Coaching Programs and new golfers attending the Learn to Play Golf program should also be encouraged to supplement their attendance and development by engage into private Coaching Plans...

Recommending a Coaching Plan

Based on the Coaching Plan you decide to offer, you will need to use your skill as a coach to recommend the most suitable coaching plan for each student. You will be best placed to do this after an Assessment session but students may enquire about purchasing a coaching plan without completing this and you should be be able to make the appropriate recommendation.

In many case the customers purchasing decision may be dictated by budget, but in order to make a recommend you should ask three specific questions to students and aim to have a further discussion prior to making a recommendation.

Remember that the on course discovery session will allow you to map out a plan for how the specific coaching time in a Coaching Plan will be used...

What do you want to achieve with your golf?

When do you want to achieve this by?

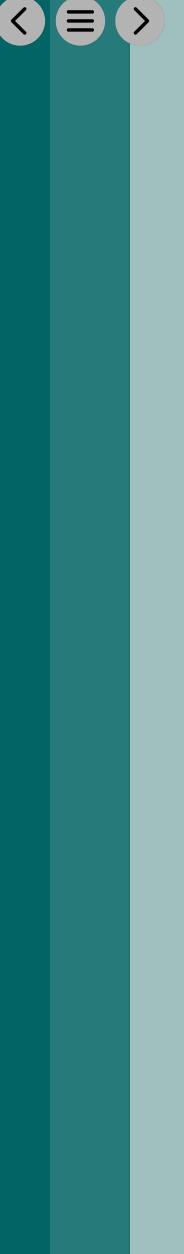

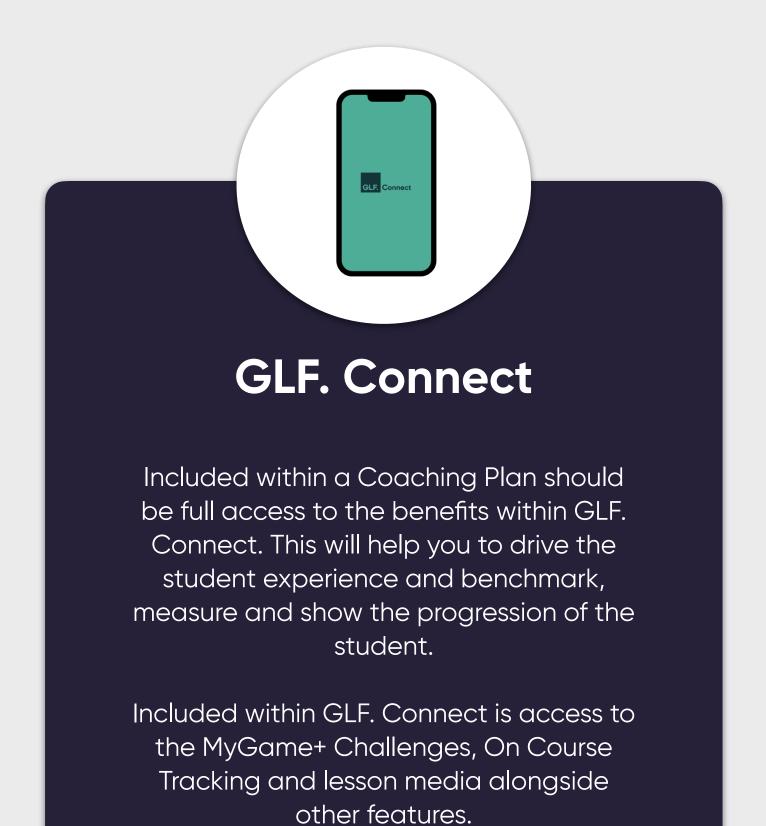

What would it mean to you to achieve this?

Adding Value

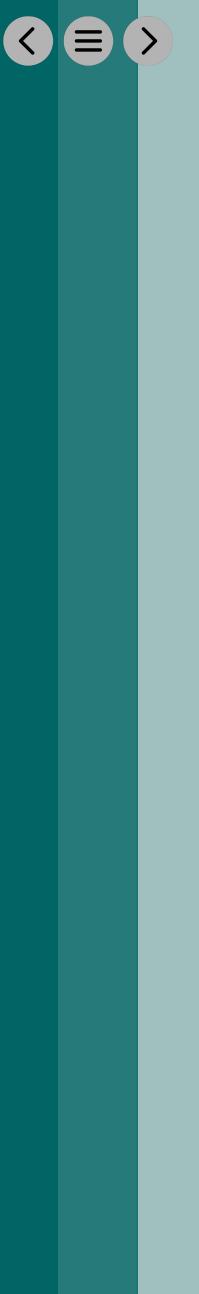

Built into the Coaching Plans are some added value benefits. These are important elements to differentiate the plans from regular private lessons alongside any discounted coaching time that is built into the plans. We recommend you add value to these Coaching Plans in the following ways....

Practice Clubs

We recommend you provide FREE weekly practice club attendance to those registrwered to a coaching plan. This will allow stude4nts to gain additional supervised coaching time with you, develop social connects with others at the club and ensure they are practice effectively.

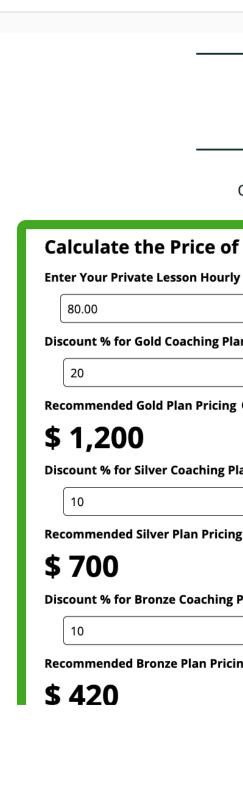

Pricing your Coaching Plans

The exact pricing of your Coaching Plans across the two categories and various options within each will be up to the you and you will need to consider the demographic in which you operate and your current private lesson rates. However, based on the success of these Coaching Plans with coaches around the world we recommend that you incentive students by offering a reduced rate on the coaching time.

On the Private Coaching Plans page we have built a calculator to help you price your options...

Input your hourly coaching rate and the percentage discount amount to apply to each plan as an incentive.

The calculator will then display the recommend the price for each plan....

Scheduling Overview

The exact way in which you operate your Private Coaching Plans will be up to you. However, there are some crucial scheduling actions and recommendations you should take to make this program a success within your coaching business and this includes...

Decide on the Coaching Plans

• You and your coaching team should decide on the exact coaching plans you intend to offer SO this can be clear to customers and allow you to update the relevant marketing material. You will also need to setup the correct pricing of your Coaching Plans on the GLF. Connect system.

Customize your Store Purchase Emails

 Via GLF. Connect, you have the ability to customise
We recommend that you offer Practice Club your Store Purchase Confirmations linked to your Private Coaching Plans. You can use this to include important information such as the booking steps and added value benefits.

Decide on Student or Coach Led Purchasing

Setup Practice Club Discount Code

• This will depend if your GLF. Connect system is setup with a payment integration. If it is, we recommend that the process for purchasing coaching plans is led by the student. For those that are not integrated to accept online payments the coach will be required to process the coaching plan purchase on behalf of the student.

Ensure All Booking is Via GLF. Connect

• Regardless as to whether the purchase process is led by you or the student, all lessons related to Coaching Plans should be booked into the GLF. Connect system. This will drive the customer experience, ensure you track the lesson credit usage and monitor key insights.

Structuring a Private Coaching Plan

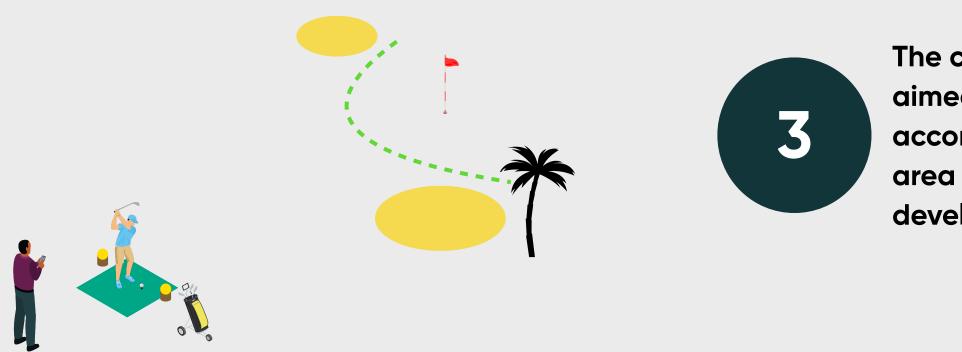

Once you have converted a student into a coaching plan, it will be your skill as a coach to use the coaching time within the plan effectively in order for them to achieve their gaol within the time period that has been agreed.

We recommend that you customise how the coaching time is used within a student based on their needs and then you are agile to use how and where the time is used as your journey with the students progresses. We have provided below a breakdown of how the coaching time with a Bronze Coaching Plan might be used...

60 Minute On Course Discovery Session at start of the Coaching Plan...

"The goal is to get your handicap reduced by 2 shots by the end of the Summer. I recommend to do this we focus on your short game skills and on course management within the time available...

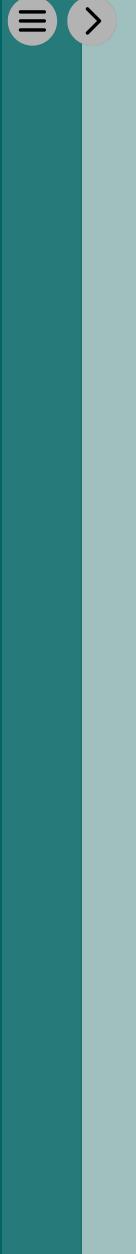

The goal is agreed in the discovery session and the coach should outline how the coaching time is recommend to be used...

The coaching time is aimed to be split according to the skills area to be developed...

Lesson Number	Duration	Skill Focus
1	60	Chipping
2	60	Bunker Play
3	120	On Course Session
5	60	Putting
6	60	On Course Session

Utilising GLF. Connect Media

The customers progress through a Coaching Plan can be measured and tracked via the GLF. Connect system features. Specifically, we recommend that you make full use of the Media Feature in order to enhance the customers experience, demonstrate improvement and capture crucial feedback points that the student should practice in between lessons. Some of the key features you can utilise are as follows...

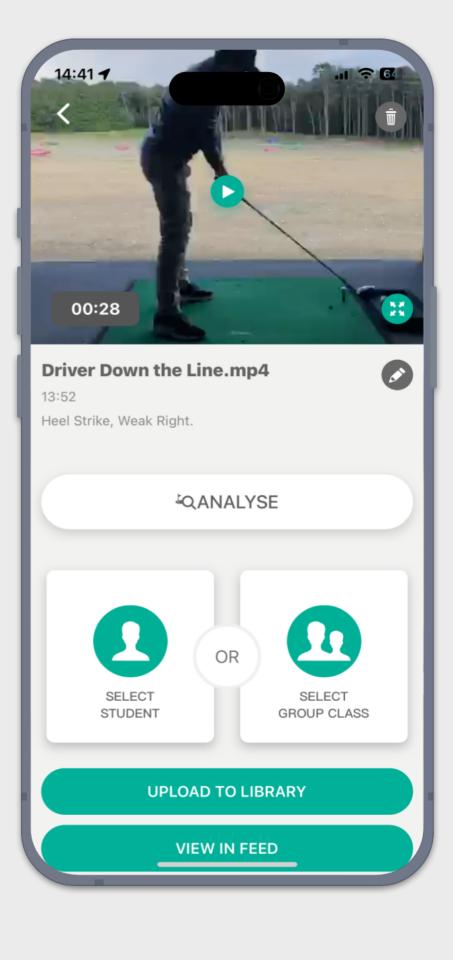

Media Feature

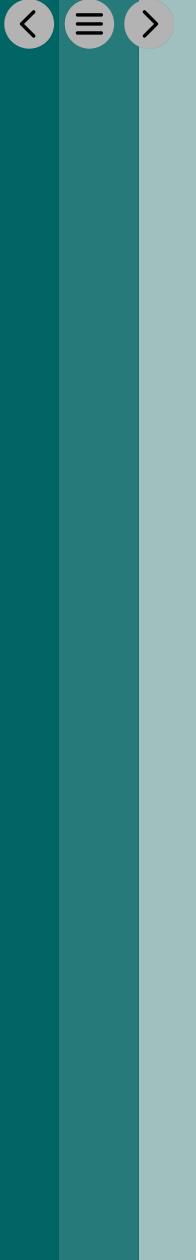

- Analyse the students swing and provide a voiceover recording
- Share recording and media files with students by assigned to their feed or tag to a specific lesson
- Share additional media types including notes, images and audio notes
- Commenting and messaging to drive the coach and student relationship

Utilising GLF. Connect MyGame+ Challenges

During their Coaching Plan journey customers can attempt challenges across a number of skill categories. This approach allows students to have a broad benchmark across all of the skills important for achieving their agreed goals and aspirations. It will also support an engagement element to their supervised and unsupervised practice...

Scoring Goal Challenges

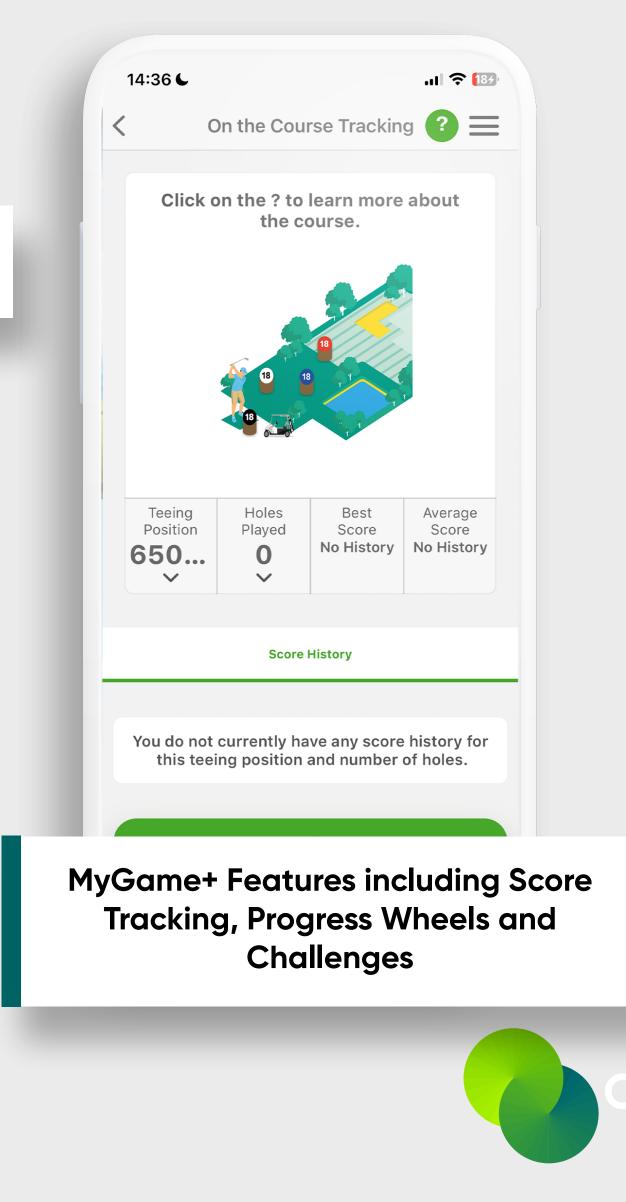

These challenges are built into adult group coaching programs and provided a supplement tray element for students enrolled in private coaching plans to track their progress. Customers can attempt challenges across the four skill categories. This approach allows students to have a broad benchmark across all of the skills important for achieving their scoring goal.

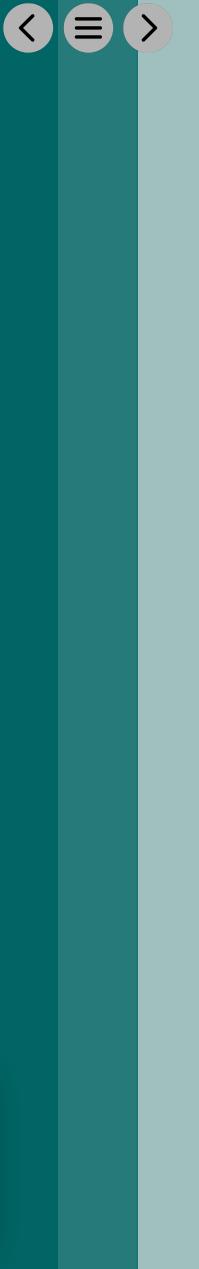

The challenges have been designed over five Scoring Goal levels. This allows students to identify and track their skill progress within each category and each skill relative to score on the golf course.

Final Thoughts

The success of the Coaching Plans will of course be driven by the participant's game development and experience during lessons. However, the communicating and experience they receive prior to, after and between lessons is vital to success. We are aiming to providing you with all the tools you need, but you have a critical role to play in delivering a great experience for those who attend. Remember the following when managing the journey of a student on a coaching plan...

Be Agile with Coaching Time

• It is vital that you map out how the coaching time within a coaching plan is recommend to be used from the outset. However, as you progress through the journey with the student you may need to adapt how and where the coaching time is used.

Promote Practice Clubs

 Practice Clubs are recommended to be an added value benefit and you should promote those to students with every interaction. Reiterate the benefits so they understand why this is an important element to the program.

Prioritise Re-Booking

• It is vital for the students engagement that you prioritise getting future lessons booked in. As minimum at the end of each lesson you should re-book the students next lesson but even better, get all lessons booked on over the plan duration.

Utilise GLF. Connect Features

• You should aim to tulles all the benefits of the GLF. Connect system with your students which includes online booking, communication features, Media and the MyGame+ feature to help track their progress.

Prioritise Communication

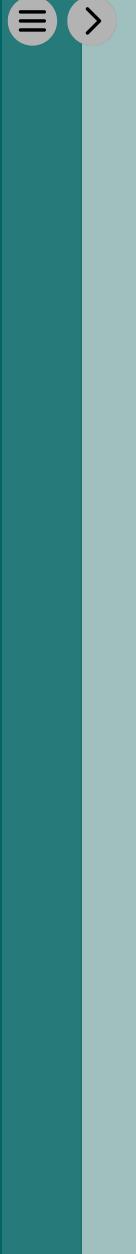

• Vital to the experience of the student is the communication they receive during their coaching plan. The GLF. Connect system will send a number of automated emails but you should ensure you communicate with students before, after and in between lessons.

Promote Effective Practice

 It is vital that the students invests in their own development under your guidance. Through the coaching plan you should guide the student on how they can practice effectively in between lessons.

Next Steps

TO COMPLETE

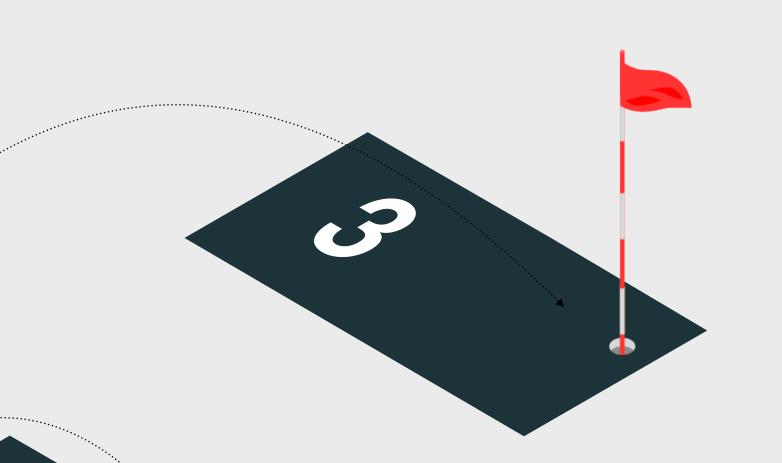

Next Steps

Take the next steps towards a launching Private Coaching Plans by following the recommend next steps below...

1. Decide on the Private Coaching Plan Options

3. Deliver a Great Coaching Plan Experience

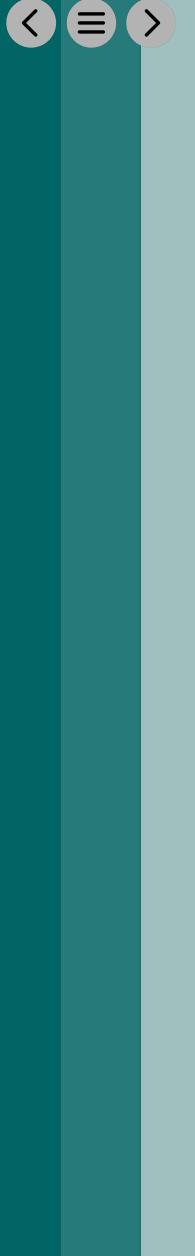

• As and when you sell a Private Coaching Plan you should deliver a great coaching plan experience and we recommend you make the full use of the GLF. Connect system features.

2. Create Your Marketing Content
